own motion or at the request of any party, direct counsel for all parties to confer with the hearing officer before the hearing for the purpose of considering:

- (1) Simplification and clarification of the issues:
- (2) Stipulations and admissions of fact and of the contents and authenticity of documents;
- (3) The disclosure of the names of witnesses;
- (4) Matters of which official notice will be taken:
- (5) Other matters as may aid in the orderly disposition of the proceeding, including disclosure of the documents or other physical exhibits which will be introduced in evidence in the course of the proceeding.
- (b) Recordation of prehearing conference. The prehearing conference shall, at the request of any party, be recorded or transcribed.
- (c) Order on prehearing conference. The hearing officer shall enter in the record an order which states the rulings upon matters considered during the conference, together with appropriate directions to the parties. The order shall control the subsequent course of the proceeding, subject to modifications upon good cause shown.

HEARINGS

§26.22 Public nature and timing of hearings, transcripts.

- (a) Public hearings. All hearings in adjudicative proceedings shall be public.
- (b) Conduct of hearing. Hearings shall proceed with all reasonable speed. The hearing officer may order recesses for good cause, stated on the record. The hearing officer may, for convenience of the parties or in the interests of justice, order that hearings be conducted outside Washington, DC, and, if necessary, at more than one place.
- (c) Transcripts. Hearings shall be recorded and transcribed only by a reporter designated by the Department under the supervision of the hearing officer. The original transcript shall be a part of the record and shall constitute the sole official transcript. Respondents and the public, at their own expense, may obtain copies of transcripts from the reporter.

§26.23 Rules of evidence.

(a) Evidence. Every party shall have the right to present its case or defense by oral and documentary evidence, unless otherwise limited by law or regulation, to submit rebuttal evidence and to conduct such cross-examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the facts. Irrelevant, immaterial, privileged, or unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded.

Unless otherwise provided for in this part, the Federal Rules of Evidence shall provide guidance for the conduct of proceedings under this part. Parties may object to clearly irrelevant material, but technical objections to testimony as used in a court of law will not be sustained.

- (b) Testimony under oath or affirmation. All witnesses shall testify under oath or affirmation.
- (c) Objections. Objections to the admission or exclusion of evidence shall be in short form, stating the grounds of objections. Rulings on objections shall be a part of the transcript. Failure to object to admission or exclusion of evidence or to any evidentiary ruling shall be considered a waiver of objection, but no exception to a ruling on an objection is necessary in order to preserve it for appeal.
- (d) Authenticity of documents. Unless specifically challenged, it shall be presumed that all relevant documents are authentic. An objection to the authenticity of a document shall not be sustained merely on the basis that it is not the original.
- (e) Stipulations. The parties may stipulate as to any relevant matters of fact. Stipulations may be received in evidence at a hearing, and when received shall be binding on the parties with respect to the matters stipulated.
- (f) Official notice. All matters officially noticed by the hearing officer shall appear on the record.
- (g) Burden of proof. The burden of proof shall be upon the proponent of an action or affirmative defense unless otherwise provided by law or regulation.

§26.24 Hearing officer's determination and order.

(a) Scope of review. The hearing officer shall conduct a de novo review of
